

„Setting signs for peace and justice – 50 years of EIRENE“

Partnerconference

from the 20th to the 23rd of may 2007

in the Chhristians Youth Village in Bonn

Conferenceprogramm

1 st Day	Sunday, 20.5.2007
till 3.00 pm	Arrival
3.00 pm	Coffee and tea
3.30 pm	Welcome and introduction to the conference by Angela König (EIRENE) and Uwe Trittmann (Evangelische Akademie Iserlohn)
4:00 pm	Introduction of the participants in working groups
5.30 pm	Introduction of the participants - Plenum
6.30 pm	Dinner
7.30 pm – 9.30 pm	Commitment for peace and justice: From the beginning till today - Podium Moderation: Dr. Josef Freise, KFH NRW (Abt. Köln) Dan McFadden, Brethren Volunteer Service (USA) Wilfried Steen, Evangelischer Entwicklungsdienst Gabriella Belenyasi, Philothea (Romania) Karen Siebert, Pax Christi Aachen and EIRENE Deutscher Zweig Harry Schram, EIRENE International
2 nd Day	Monday, 21.05.2007
8:00 am	Invitation for a meditation
8:30 am	Breakfast
9:00 am	„Achieve a service for peace and justice“ Lecture with discussion Daryl Byler, Mennonite Central Committee Moderation: Martin Petry, Brot für die Welt
10:00 am	Coffee and tea
10:30 am	Peace and Justice – The Basic points for the work for reconciliation, solidarity and civil conflict treatment Moderation: Martin Petry (Brot für die Welt) Dr. Vilma Nuñez de Escorcia, CENIDH (Nicaragua): The effort for the human rights in a post civil war country Fouzia Assouli, La Ligue Démocratique pour les Droits des Femmes (Morocco): Peace in the moroccan society and women rights in the context of the religions - asked Madjioudou Laoundam Laoumaï, MEC (Tschad): Mechanisms of non-violent conflict treatment between farmers and stockbreeders
12:30 pm	Lunch and break

2:30 pm -
3:30 pm

Positive peace and non-violence in the 21st century – a subject for minorities, niches and forgotten conflicts?

Working group 1: Processing experiences of violence and spirituality – Social peace
Moderation: Günter Schöneegg, FriEnt

Zénon Manirakiza, Nduwamahoro - Le nonviolent actif (Burundi): Work up the civil war and rural conflicts

Salifou Noufou, GENOVICO (Niger): Rural conflicts in the Sahel – Non-violence in the Islam

EMMAÜS (France): Living and working with victims of structural violence - asked

Anna Massina, Arche de Lanza del Vasto (France): Non-violent living

Working group 2: Awareness- and lobbywork for the individual rights and the protection against violence – Individual peace

Moderation: Martina Richard, EIRENE

Sandra Ramos, MEC (Nicaragua): Fighting for fair working conditions for the women in fairtrade zones

Sonia Lokku, CIMADE (France): From the anti-colonial work for solidarity in Morocco to the work with refugees and immigrants in France

Dieudonne Kibinakanwa, Mi-PAREC (Burundi): Construction and company from peace-committees after a civil-war

Working group 3: Political work for solidarity

Moderation: Jan Gildemeister (AGDF)

Vera Wiedenbeck, Campaign against military and economic violence: Experiences from the peacework in the USA

Wilhelm Volks, INKOTA: Giving signs for solidarity and self-determination

Steven McCloskey, Center for global education (Ireland): Anti-colonialistic work in a european country

3:30 pm Coffee and tea in the working groups

4:00 pm Continuation with the working groups

5:00 pm Presentation of working groups in the plenum

6:00 pm Lunch

7:30 pm - Peace – Non-Violence – Justice

9:00 pm Personal peacework in the conflict between partial civil society and governmental monopolisation - Podium

Moderation: Angela König, EIRENE

Angelika Beer, Die Grünen im Europaparlament

Walter Hättig, Weltfriedensdienst

Dr. Christian Staffa, Aktion Sühnezeichen Friedensdienste

Dr. Barbara Müller, Institut for peacework and nonviolent conflict treatment

Michael Steeb, Arbeitsgemeinschaft für Entwicklungshilfe

3rd Day
Thursday, 22.5.2007
8:00 am	Invitation for a meditation
8:30 am	Breakfast
9:00 am	„Chances and limits of a voluntary service with an development policy background Hans-Dietrich Lehmann (BMZ) in conversation with Dr. Gislea Kurth (EIRENE)
10:00 am	Coffee and tea
10:30 am	„We life in one world“ - Peace- and volunteer work in foreign countries is not enough Introducion: Jean-Luc Tissot Working group about the consciousness work in Germany : Sustainable management: Climate Action Network Fair trade: Clean Cloth Campaign Dr. Sabine Ferenschild (Ökumenisches Netz Rhein-Mosel-Saar) Empowering the civil society: Mineraloil campaign Tschad – Kamerun Martin Zint (EIRENE Deutscher Zweig) Campaign against Landmines Transcultural Work between muslims and christians Cevib Yilmazer (Advisory board of immigrants Neuwied)
12:30 pm	Lunch
2:00 pm	Perceive the world with awareness: Visiting social and political projects in and around Bonn
6:00 pm	Dinner
7:00 pm	EIRENE in 10 years – Discussion in small groups
from 8:30 pm	Being together with music and singing Concert
4th Day
Wednesday, 23.5.2007
8:00 am	Invitation for a meditation
8:30 am	Breakfast
9:15 am	„A vision of international peace- and volunteer work“ The peaceactivist and honorary president of the International Fellowship of Reconciliation (IFOR) Dr. Hildegard Goss-Mayr in conversation with young volunteers from EIRENE
10:30 am	Coffee and tea
11:00 am	Fish-Bowl: Setting signs for peace and justice Wishes, expectations and visions for the peacework in the future? Ideas for 50 more years of EIRENE? Moderation: Member of the board of directors from EIRENE
12:30 pm	Lunch
from 2:30 pm	Departure

The language during the conference: german

The simultan translation during the conference is for the languages: english, french and spanish